CAN YOU MEMORIZE ALL OF YOUR INTERVALS?

ASCENDING (MOST IMPORTANT)

Count from >>	C	D ^b	D	E ^b	E	F	F [#]	G	A ^b	A	B ^b	B
+ Half-step	Db	D	Eb	E	F	Gb	G	Ab	A	Bb	B	C
+ Whole-step	D	Eb	E	F	F [#]	G	G [#]	A	Bb	B	C	C [#]
+ Minor 3rd	Eb	E	F	Gb	G	Ab	A	Bb	B	C	Db	D
+ Major 3rd	E	F	F [#]	G	G [#]	A	A [#]	B	C	C [#]	D	D [#]
+ 4th	F	Gb	G	Ab	A	Bb	B	C	Db	D	Eb	E
+ Tritone	F [#]	G	Ab	A	Bb	B	C	C [#]	D	Eb	E	F
+ 5th	G	Ab	A	Bb	B	C	C [#]	D	Eb	E	F	F [#]
+ Minor 6th	Ab	A	Bb	B	C	Db	D	Eb	E	F	Gb	G
+ Major 6th	A	Bb	B	C	Db	D	D [#]	E	F	F [#]	G	G [#]
+ Minor 7th	Bb	B	C	Db	D	Eb	E	F	Gb	G	Ab	A
+ Major 7th	B	C	C [#]	D	D [#]	E	F	F [#]	G	G [#]	A	A [#]

(Don't worry about note spelling for this - e.g. whether you call a note Bb or A[#]. Just identify the correct note and spell it how you want to).

DESCENDING (LESS IMPORTANT, BUT HELPFUL)

- Minor 3rd	A	A [#]	B	C	Db	D	D [#]	E	F	F [#]	G	G [#]
- Major 3rd	Ab	A	Bb	B	C	Db	D	Eb	E	F	Gb	G

- Major 7th	Db	D	Eb	E	F	Gb	G	Ab	A	Bb	B	C

“WHY LEARN ALL THESE INTERVALS?”

It's the first thing you must do.

If you want to quickly pick up new chord voicings, learn new scales, understand a lick, etc...

You need to know your intervals.

Every technique you learn in Jazz harmony IS an interval pattern.

For example, a chord voicing is 5th + 5th + half-step + 5th + 5th.

When you memorize it as an interval pattern (instead of note names - C G D etc) - you can built that interval pattern from any root note.

Overall its much less work - than if you were to attempt to memorize a chord voicing by its NOTE NAMES - from all 12 notes (nobody does this).

If you want to speed up your playing - memorize intervals.

If you want to speed up your learning - memorize intervals.

And you must memorize them. You don't want to be counting out the intervals from scratch each time.

It's similar to a mathematician - who has to memorize their 12 times table - before they can do anything exciting in math.

To learn Jazz piano (or anything in music harmony) you first have to learn these intervals.

Focus on the ascending intervals first.

Set a deadline to learn all of your intervals ascending within 30 or 60 days.

I promise you - that if you take the time to memorize the intervals above - you will find everything you do in music MUCH easier.

You'll be able to learn 10X faster.

Play 10X faster (finding notes quickly, chord voicings quickly, etc).

Your chances of succeeding become 100X more likely - if you take the time now to memorize these intervals.

Well done - I know you can do this!

Your friend,
